

Becoming Whole / Becoming Healers

an Evening Workshop with

Rabbi Shefa Gold

November 1st – 7 pm please arrive early

Advance Registration: $25 – At the Door: $30

The archetype of The Wounded Healer points us towards the path of becoming whole in order to become healers.

This wondrous path leads us through self-awareness, self-compassion and compassion for all the world to becoming a healing presence – radiant, whole and available to the God-light that will shine through our unique refraction.

We will transform the idea of Tikkun Olam from one of FIXING a world that is broken, to one of HEALING a world that we love.

We will reclaim the parts of ourselves that have been split off in moments of trauma,
and release the residue of shame and alienation that keeps us from connecting with Unity Consciousness.

Come. Discover. Chant. Transform. Rejoice.

Rabbi Shefa Gold is renowned for her ecumenical wisdom teachings, her sacred chanting, for her understanding and expression of Jewish insights. She trains spiritual leaders and gives spiritual coaching.

Rabbi Shefa is a leader in ALEPH: the Alliance for Jewish Renewal and received her ordination both from the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College and from Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi. She is the director of C-DEEP, The Center for Devotional, Energy and Ecstatic Practice. She teaches workshops and retreats on the theory and art of Chanting, Devotional Healing, Spiritual Community-Building and Meditation.

Rabbi Shefa composes and performs spiritual music, has produced ten albums, and her liturgies have been published in several prayerbooks. She is the author of Torah Journeys: The Inner Path to the Promised Land and In the Fever of Love: An Illumination of The Song of Songs, both published by Ben Yehuda Press. Her latest book is The Magic of Hebrew Chant: Healing the Spirit, Transforming the Mind, Deepening Love.

By combining her grounding in Judaism with a background in Buddhist, Christian, Islamic, and Native American spiritual traditions, Rabbi Shefa is uniquely qualified as a spiritual bridge celebrating the shared path of devotion.
