

A New Covenant

by Rabbi Shefa Gold

נְתַתִּי אֶת-תּוֹרַתִּי בְּקִרְבָּם וְעַל-לִבָּם אֶכְתְּבֶנָּה

Natatí et-Torati b'kirbam, v'al-libam echtavenah

I will put my Torah into their inmost being and inscribe it upon their hearts. (Jeremiah 31:33)

Through the prophet Jeremiah, God promises to make a new covenant. It will be different. You will find this one inside you. A covenant is always a two-way agreement ... so when I chant these words, I am expressing own commitment, so that I can stand up in partnership with the Divine force of Love.
