

Celebration in Praise

Hilulah, hilulah, hilulah, Halleluyah!

Hilulah, hilulah, hilulah, Halleluyah!

כֹּל הַנְּשָׁמָה תְהַלֵּל יְיָ

Kol Ha'n'shama t'hallelyah,

Kol Ha'n'shama t'hallelyah (Psalm 150:6)

It's a Celebration of Praise; Let all souls praise Yah!

The word Hilulah in modern Hebrew, means celebration. In the Chasidic world, the term has come to mean a celebration in praise and honor of some great sage on the anniversary of their death. We celebrate not only to have a good time, but to honor that teacher and connect with the flow, wisdom and love of a life-well-lived. Through our celebration, we enter that flow, receive that wisdom and open to the possibility of living in the light of that love.
