

All Love

כָּלֵם אַהוּבִים, כָּלֵם בְּרוּרִים, כָּלֵם גְּבוּרִים

Kulam Ahuvim, Kulam B'rurim, Kulam Giborim

All Love, All Clarity, All Power

(from the Kedusha of Yotzer in our Shachrit liturgy)

The Kedusha is a prayer recited three times in three variations in our morning liturgy. It was created by the Merkava mystics to help us ascend to the angelic realms and remember our own true identity as chariots of the Divine Presence. The Kedusha describes and invokes the angels who are calling to each other. With this practice, we become those angels as we rise above the illusions of limited perspective and enter the truth of our love, clarity and power.
